Publishers and Proprietors,
TO WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS

Go on, good boys, and swing your hats
And still keep up the shout;
We horny-handed Democrats
Have turned the rascals out.
—Frankfort Yeoman.

The steamer Hattie Brown left for Ashland Saturday night to bring down a tow of coal.

The Uniform Patriarchs of the Odd Fellows meet at their hall to-night, and full attendance is desired as business of importance will come before them.

There is great complaint among the farmers of this county that their crop of small grain is being eaten up by the fly. Many of them think that the present crop is already destroyed. Mr. Caldwell, of Washington, is now re-sowing his wheat, hoping to get a partial yield.

The churches were all largely attended yesterday, the day was pleasant and the presidential excitement over, and the people felt joyous and happy, hence the churches were all full, both morning and evening, "go thou and do likewise," so we say to all the people in all the land.

It will be very hard upon the revenue officers who have soon to catch up their duds and make tracks out of office, to know that in betting upon "the plumed knight," they have lost all the money they saved from their salaries for the last year and more. To lose both money and office, will be a calamity with some hard to bear.

The Democrats of Lewis County had a grand jubilation, on Saturday night last, over the election of Cleveland and Hendricks, and to add to the exhilaration of the occasion news came by telegraph that the count had ended, and the result showed that Cleveland's plurality was found to be 1,147. Several eloquent and patriotic speeches were made and the occasion passed off altogether most pleasantly.

At the earnest solicitation of a number of leading citizens, Messrs. Chamberlain and Ruth will soon commence a class of vocal instruction. Lists for subscribers may be found at the stores of G. V. Blatterman, Harry Taylor and the office of the Morning Call. As Mr. Chamberlain is a gentleman who has spent the greater part of a half century in the capacity of public lecturer, and Mr. Ruth, though a younger man, is a fine bass and an excellent pianist, there is no reason why our people should withhold their patronage. Their presence here fills a long-felt want.

At Farewell Hall, last evening, Philip Phillips, the "Singing Pilgrim," gave a unique and interesting entertainment which he styled, "Around the World in a Chart of Song." Mr. Phillips has traveled extensively in all parts of the globe, and last night he gave an account of his travels, and places he had visited, illustrating his narrative with numerous dissolving views, graphic and well-selected, introducing many entertaining illustrative songs, sung in his own peculiar and pleasing way. The audience last night was quite large, and, judging from the frequent and hearty applause, seemed to give infinite satisfaction in this cheap, easy and novel way of "seeing the world."—(Chicago Daily Times.)

Mr. Phillips will appear this and tomorrow evening at the Third Street M. E. Church.

It appears that Wadsworth beats Powers in the Greenup, Ky., contest by a hundred. Still Powers is not content. When a car load of negroes are voted at Grayson, and no telling how many other places in the district, there should be a fair count.—Portsmouth Times.

Wadsworth's official majority is only about one hundred and two as reported; but there were enough errors in all the counties, some such as above, or thus, when the polls were opened and closed at such hours as were not authorized by law, the purchase of votes and where the judges had disqualified themselves by betting on Wadsworth's success, as to make it quite certain that Mr. Wadsworth would not be allowed to take his seat if a contest is made.

Democratic talk about the thugs and thieves who acted as Deputy Marshals at the election in Cincinnati is becoming more and more common. The thugs and thieves who acted as Deputy Marshals, to terrorize and bulldoze the Democratic voters at Cincinnati, had better be a little modest now, for it may not be long before the gutline which is whetting now for some of their necks, will be performing its just work.

Fire.

About half-past eleven o'clock last night a fire broke out in the frame building on Second street, occupied by Watson & Co. and James T. Kackley, which for a moment bid fair to be disastrous. It is supposed to have been either the work of an incendiary or the result of a defective fly, though no fire is believed by many to have been in the house yesterday or last night. The roof was instantly all in a flame, and but for the prompt and efficient services of our fireman and the admirable facilities of the city water works, the whole structure would have been destroyed. It was in the very centre of the business part of our city and if not so speedily arrested great destruction would have ensued to valuable property.

The buildings belonged to Dr. William H. McGranaghan and were insured in the London and Lancashire Company in the sum of $2,000.

The stock of Watson & Co. was insured at the sum of $5,000 which it is believed will cover the loss. The stock was insured in the Liverpool, London and Globe Company for $3,000 and in the Lancashire Company at $2,000.

The photographic stock of James T. Kackley was valued at $10,000 and was insured in the following companies as follows:

Scottish Union	$1,000
Commercial Union	1,000
Imperial	1,000
Royal	1,000
Mercantile	1,000
Providence and Washington	1,000
Total	$7,000

Debate.

A debate between Rev. J. S. Kendrick, of the Christian Church, and Rev. J. W. Fitch, of the M. E. Church, South, Kentucky Conference, will begin at Tollesboro, Ky., Wednesday, November 19th, and continue for eight days. The following propositions will be discussed: 1. The baptism instituted by the Lord Jesus Christ is immersion. (Kendrick affirms.) 2. Infant baptism is taught in the holy scriptures. (Fitch affirms.) 3. Baptism to the believing penitent for the remission of past sins. (Kendrick affirms.) 4. In regeneration or the new birth the holy spirit operates directly and immediately upon the person regenerated or born again. (Fitch affirms.) The public is cordially invited.

The rush for office by the Democrats on the theory that Cleveland is elected has already commenced. Wait a while, gentlemen! There is plenty of time, and besides, the result of the official canvass of the vote of New York will be out at your fire calculations.—Lexington Nation.

The rush out of office by the Republican revenue officers will be quite as great in a short time, as the rush for office by the Democrats. The result of the official canvass of the vote of New York is now determined and well known, but it needs no calculations so much as it does the calculations of the Republican revenue officers, who have been hoping to find some mistake, or error, or pretence, upon which they could claim the tithe of man.

The defeat of Frank Powers is the only black spot in the Kentucky election. He deserved an election, and the result shows that a determined effort would have easily given it to him.—Frankfort Call.

A very determined effort was made to elect him, and a very large democratic vote was cast in his favor, but all this could not overcome the negro vote imported into the district for Wadsworth, the money and bribery made up by Wadsworth's friends, and the treachery of a few democrats who follow the lead of a few cranks who profess democracy but do not practice it.

The Republicans of Washington City were allowed to take the U. S. Military Band to celebrate the Republican victory in Ohio in October last; but when the Democrats applied for it to celebrate the victory the people of the country achieved in the election of Grover Cleveland to the Presidency, Mr. Lincoln, the Secretary of War, refused to let them have it. This shows that Mr. Robert Lincoln is a much smaller man than honest old Abe, his father.

The Illinois Legislature is said now to be Democratic, and away goes John A. Logan from the United States Senate. Democrats will take his place after the fourth of March next. It is also said Riddleberger, of Virginia, has cut loose from Gen. Mahone. If things continue to move in this line it will not be long before the United States Senate will be Democratic.

PERSONALS.

Miss Carrie Davis is visiting friends at Cincinnati.

Mr. John H. Hall has returned from a business trip to the South.

Miss Sallie Daugherty, who has been very ill is rapidly recovering.

An Honest Man.

It was not Cleveland's overworking intellect that elected him; it was not his wit, his brilliancy, nor his magnetism, but his undimmed honesty and sterling integrity. Cleveland's election gives the lie to the charge that we are a nation of rascals.

Letter From Texas.

BUSHAM, TEXAS, November 9, 1884. Editor Bulletin, St. Louis, Mo.—Today of Henry Harrison, Esq., of this place, and at dinner given in commemoration of the forty-seventh anniversary of the marriage of John Q. Adams and Abigail to Miss Martha Andrews, of Flemingsburg, Kentucky. The occasion was interesting in many places, and was a worthy note of the reminiscence. Fifty years ago Judge James E. Shepard and I were school-fellows at Oxford, Ohio, aged respectively fourteen and fifteen years. It is not often that schoolmates after a separation of fifty years meet in a place so far from the scenes of their boyhood and at a festive board. Almost grown representatives of a third generation, as in this instance, represented upon James Shepard and his wife. Passing from Mr. Harrison's I visited Hon. Chauncey B. Shepard, with whom I was at school when John Quincy Adams was President of the United States. The Shepards are noted among the most eminent and distinguished men in Texas, and Colonel Seth Shepard, son of C. B. S., the superior of any man of his age in the State as a lawyer and orator.

Yours truly, S. A.

The Modest Democrats.

(Seneca Advertiser.) Mr. Blaine is left. He won't be inaugurated next March. Congress will have to pass a law to compel Democrats to take the office. These are so modest that they won't ask for them.

NEWS FROM GEN. GORDON

He Reports the Murder of Colonel Stewart and Others.

The Nile Expedition—Closing Noted Gambling Houses—Five Hundred Prisoners Beheaded—Bad Financiering, Etc.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Gordon, in his letter to Wolsey, says that Stewart, Mr. Power, the correspondent, and Mr. Herbin, the French Consul, left Hama on a steamer which left Khartoum on September 10. He also states that he has received his sister's, Sir Samuel Baker's and Mr. Stanley's letters.

THE NILE EXPEDITION.
ALEXANDRIA, Nov. 17.—Officers here have been trying to purchase large boats, as none were sent with the boats for the Nile expedition. There were only twenty-six that could be purchased here. Assured has been denied of troops, the whole force having been sent to the front. While Wolsey was at Cairo it was believed the Nile expedition would cost $32,500,000. A final estimate now made is double that figure. A number of the Kabbahin tribes have joined Mahdi.

SORTED GAMBLING HOUSES SHUT DOWN.
BERNE, Nov. 15.—The Federal Council has adopted a resolution prohibiting gambling at the Casino at Montreux, and similar measures will be adopted with reference to the Foreigners Club at Geneva.

TWO AND A HALF MILLIONS.
LONDON, Nov. 17.—Sparrall & Co., merchants at 45 Old Broad Street, London, E. C., have failed. Their liabilities amount to $2,500,000.

GOING THE WRONG WAY.
BERLIN, Nov. 17.—The financial statement for the coming year shows an estimated decrease of $1,000,000 in receipts and an estimated increase of 15,000,000 in expenditures.

MISS VAN ZANTZ'S ILLNESS.
PARIS, Nov. 17.—The critics who were present at the Comique, when Miss Van Zantz was obliged to retire from the stage, have formed a committee to learn the true character of the prima donna's indisposition, with a view to protecting themselves from libel suits.

SCOUTS FORCES IN EGYPT.
DONGOLA, Nov. 17.—Major Wortley and four attendants have ridden across the desert by way of Solima. They report that it is impossible for a hostile force to use this route to cut the English off from their base. Any force which attempted to pass from Kordofan to Upper Egypt would be obliged to strike the Nile at Dongola. Dongola is thus the strategic gate to Egypt, and who ever controls this possesses the key to the situation.

ANOTHER LECTURE COMING.
LONDON, Nov. 17.—The Daily Times states that Matthew Arnold has resigned his post in the education office, and proposes to begin a lengthened tour of the United States about Christmas.

AMERICANS ESCAPING THE CHOLERA.
PARIS, Nov. 17.—Thus far no English or American tourists or residents have been attacked by the cholera in this city.

FIVE HUNDRED PRISONERS BEHEADED.
LONDON, Nov. 17.—A dispatch from Hui Shong, received this afternoon, states that the French at Annamite Auxiliaries have beheaded 500 Chinese prisoners taken at the capture at Khe, October 8.

Negroes Replacing Chinamen.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 17.—Mr. P. W. Ownbey, of Lafayette, California, arrived in this city to-day and stopped at the St. James Hotel. He is here for the purpose of arranging for the conveyance over the Union Pacific of 1,500 negroes from Tennessee to California. He is working for Haggis and Davis, who are large farmers in Kern County, and who have tried the plan of employing negroes on their farms instead of Chinamen. The Chinamen cost about $20 a month, and the negroes are employed at $12 a month and board, the women at $8 and the boys at $6. About 300 of them have already been tried on the farms with admirable results. A lot of cotton was successfully raised, the last year an experiment. Mr. Ownbey says that since the success of the negro plan he expects a great many California planters to adopt it and thus drive out the Chinamen, who cause more trouble than they are worth.

Plenty of Time to Think About It.
BROOKLYN, Conn., Nov. 17.—In the William County Superior Court, at this place, Thursday, Andrew Squires, of West Ashford, who cut his brother to pieces in a jack-knife duel at a threshold, late in Squire's barn, in West Ashford, several weeks ago, was charged by the Grand Jury with murder in the first degree. Squires will be tried at the April term of the Superior Court. He is about fifty years old. The duel in which his brother was slain lasted over fifteen minutes, both men being experts in the use of the jack-knife. Two other brothers witnessed the fight. The quarrel was over a horse trade.

Overrun with Wolves and Bears.
ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 17.—Wolves and bears are killing cattle by the dozen on the ranges in the vicinity of Dutch and Badger Creek, in Montana. One day last week, while hunting deer in that vicinity, a stock man came across the carcasses of five head of cattle in one gulch. The track, measuring nine inches, of a bear, was seen near the slaughtered animals, and also numerous canine footprints, the latter evidently made after the bear had departed. The gulches on the north side of the Yellowstone River are overrun with bears, coyotes and prairie wolves.

A Mysterious Case.
NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—A man about forty-five years of age, who, from papers found in his possession, is supposed to be Philip Hody, a broker who represented several Boston firms in this city, was found drowned today in the Central Park lake. The deceased has been lately residing at the Continental Hotel. Mining stock, representing $12,000, was found in his coat pocket.

$10,000 in Jewelry Recovered.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 17.—Last night Ed. B. Copes, alias Benton; J. H. Shurman, alias Crosby, alias Bonestetter; Nellie McCabe and Kitty McLean were arrested on suspicion and $10,000 worth of jewelry stolen from New York Chicago and Boston, was found in their possession.

Jail Burned.
EVERGREEN, Ala., Nov. 17.—The jail of Monroe County has been burned to the ground. Ten prisoners, including the therein barely escaped with their lives. The fire is supposed to have been accidental.

Cuticura

A POSITIVE CURE

FOR EVERY FORM OF SKIN AND BLOOD DISEASE, FROM PIMPLES TO SCROFULA.

I have had the Psoriasis for nine months. About five months ago I applied to a doctor near Boston, who helped me, but unfortunately I had to leave, but continued taking his medicine for nearly three months, but the disease did not leave. I saw Mr. Carpenter's letter in the Philadelphia Record, and his case perfectly decided mine. I tried the Cuticura Remedies, using two bottles Resolvent and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap in proportion, and call myself completely cured.

WATERFORD, N. J.

ECZEMA TWENTY YEARS.
Cured—Not a sign of its reappearance. Your Cuticura has done a wonderful cure for me more than two years ago. Not a sign of its reappearance since I used Cuticura. I had been so much troubled by it for more than twenty years. I shall always speak well of Cuticura. I will a great deal of it.

FRANK C. FEAR, Druggist, Haverhill, Mass.

BEST FOR ANYTHING.
